through grace had believed, <sup>28</sup> for he powerfully confuted the Jews in public, showing by the scriptures that the Christ was Jesus.

19 While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the upper country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples. <sup>2</sup> And he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" And they said, "No, we have never even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." <sup>3</sup> And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They said, "Into John's baptism." <sup>4</sup> And Paul said, "John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus." <sup>5</sup> On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup> And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke with tongues and prophesied. <sup>7</sup> There were about twelve of them in all.

<sup>8</sup> And he entered the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, arguing and pleading about the kingdom of God; <sup>9</sup> but when some were stubborn and disbelieved, speaking evil of the Way before the congregation, he withdrew from them, taking the disciples with him, and argued daily in the hall of Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup> This continued for two years, so that all the residents of Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

<sup>11</sup> And God did extraordinary miracles by the hands of Paul, <sup>12</sup> so that handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and diseases left them and the evil spirits came out of them. <sup>13</sup> Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists undertook to pronounce the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches." <sup>14</sup> Seven sons of a Jewish high priest named Sceva were doing this. <sup>15</sup> But the evil spirit answered them, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?" <sup>16</sup> And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, mastered all of them, and overpowered them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup> And this became known to all residents of Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks; and fear fell upon them all; and the name of the Lord Jesus was extolled. <sup>18</sup> Many also of those who were now believers came, confessing and divulging their practices. <sup>19</sup> And a number of those who practiced magic arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all; and they counted the value of them and found it came to fifty thousand pieces of silver. <sup>20</sup> So the word of the Lord grew and prevailed mightily.

<sup>28</sup> And even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up unto a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting; <sup>29</sup> being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity; whisperers, <sup>30</sup> backbiters, hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, <sup>31</sup> without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, unmerciful: <sup>32</sup> who, knowing the ordinance of God, that they that practise such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also consent with them that practise them.

<sup>24</sup> Wherefore God gave them up to uncleannesse, through the lustes of their owne heartes, that their owne bodies should be defiled among themselves. <sup>25</sup> Which changed his trueth for a lye, and worshipped and served the creature, more then the Creatour, which is to bee praised for ever, Amen. <sup>26</sup> Wherefore God gave them up unto shamefull lustes, for even their women did chaunge the naturall use, into that which is against nature. <sup>27</sup> And likewise also, the men left the natural use of the woman, and brent in their lustes one with another, and men with men wrought filthinesse, and received in themselves the reward of their error (as it was according.) <sup>28</sup> And as they regarded not to knowe God: even so, God delivered them up unto a lewde minde, that they should doe those things which were not comely: <sup>29</sup> Being full of all unrighteousnesse, fornication, craftinesse, covetousnesse, maliciousnesse, full of envie, murther, debate, deceit, evill conditioned, whisperers, <sup>30</sup> Backbiters, haters of God, despitefull, proud, boasters, bringers up of evill things, disobedient to father and mother: <sup>31</sup> Without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, truce breakers, unmercifull. <sup>32</sup> The which knowing the righteousness of God (howe that they which commit such things, are worthie of death) not onely doe the same, but also have pleasure in them that doe them.

RSV (1946) 1960

<sup>24</sup> Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, <sup>25</sup> because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed for ever! Amen.

<sup>26</sup> For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. Their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural, <sup>27</sup> and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in their own persons the due penalty for their error.

<sup>28</sup> And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a base mind and to improper conduct. <sup>29</sup> They were filled with all manner of wickedness, evil, covetousness, malice. Full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity, they are gossips, <sup>30</sup> slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, <sup>31</sup> foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. <sup>32</sup> Though they know God's decree that those who do such things deserve to die, they not only do them but approve those who practice them.

God. <sup>20</sup> Because that by the deedes of the lawe, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: For by the law commeth the knowledge of sinne. <sup>21</sup> But now the righteousness of God without the law is made manifest, beeing witnessed by the law and the Prophetes. <sup>22</sup> The righteousness of God commeth by the faith of Jesus Christ, unto all, and upon all them that beleve. There is no difference: <sup>23</sup> For all have sinned, and have need of the glory of God, <sup>24</sup> But are justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: <sup>25</sup> Whome God hath set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness, by the forgiving of the sinnes that are past, <sup>26</sup> Which God did suffer, to shewe at this time his righteousness: that hee might be just, and the justifier of him which beleeveth on Jesus. <sup>27</sup> Where is then thy boasting? It is excluded. By what lawe? Of workes? Nay: but by the lawe of faith. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, we hold that a man is justified by faith, without the deedes of the lawe. <sup>29</sup> Is he the God of the Jewes onely? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, even of the Gentiles also. <sup>30</sup> For it is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision thorow faith. <sup>31</sup> Doe wee then destroy the lawe through faith? God forbid: but we rather maintaine the lawe.

RSV (1946) 1960

God. <sup>20</sup> For no human being will be justified in his sight by works of the law, since through the law comes knowledge of sin.

<sup>21</sup> But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from law, although the law and the prophets bear witness to it, <sup>22</sup> the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction; <sup>23</sup> since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, <sup>24</sup> they are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus, <sup>25</sup> whom God put forward as an expiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins; <sup>26</sup> it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies him who has faith in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. On what principle? On the principle of works? No, but on the principle of faith. <sup>28</sup> For we hold that a man is justified by faith apart from works of law. <sup>29</sup> Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, <sup>30</sup> since God is one; and he will justify the circumcised on the ground of their faith and the uncircumcised through their faith. <sup>31</sup> Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

4 What then shall we say about <sup>a</sup> Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh? <sup>2</sup> For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. <sup>3</sup> For what does the scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness." <sup>4</sup> Now to one who works, his wages are not reckoned as a gift but as his due. <sup>5</sup> And to one who does not work but trusts him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned as righteousness. <sup>6</sup> So also David pronounces a blessing upon the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works:

<sup>9</sup> Is this blessing pronounced only upon the circumcised, or also upon the uncircumcised? We say that faith was reckoned to Abraham as righteousness. <sup>10</sup> How then was it reckoned to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. <sup>11</sup> He received circumcision as a sign or seal of the righteousness which he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. God: <sup>21</sup> most fully knowing that whatsoever he promised, he is able also to doe. <sup>22</sup> Therefore was it also reputed him to justice.

<sup>23</sup> And it is not written only for him, that it was reputed him to justice: <sup>24</sup> but also for us, to whom it shal be reputed beleiving in him, that raised up JESUS CHRIST our Lord from the dead, <sup>25</sup> who was delivered up for our sinnes, and rose againe for our justification.

5 Being justified therfore by faith, let us have peace toward God by our Lord JESUS CHRIST: <sup>2</sup> by whom also we have accesse through faith into this grace wherein we stand, and glorie, in the hope of the glorie of the sonnes of God. <sup>3</sup> And not only this: but also we glorie in tribulations, knowing that tribulation worketh patience: <sup>4</sup> and patience, probation: and probation, hope. <sup>5</sup> and hope confoundeth not: because the charitie of God is powred forth in our hertes, by the holy Ghost which is given us. <sup>6</sup> For why did Christ, when we as yet were weake, according to the time die for the impious? <sup>7</sup> For, scarce for a just man doth any die: for perhaps for a good man durst some man die. <sup>8</sup> But God commendeth his charitie in us: because, when as yet we were sinners, Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup> Much more therfore now being justified in his blood, shal

<sup>23</sup> Nevertheles it is not wrytten for hym onely, that it was reckened to hym (for ryghtewesnes:) <sup>24</sup> but also for us, to whom it shal be counted (for ryghtewesnes,) so that we beleve on hym, that rayseed up Jesus oure Lorde from the deed: <sup>25</sup> whych was delyvered for oure synnes, and was rayseed agayne for oure justificacyon.

5 Because therfore that we are justified by fayth, we are at peace with God, thorow oure Lorde Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> by whom also it chaunced unto us to be brought in thorow fayth, unto thys grace, wherein we stande, and rejoyce in hope of the glory (of the chyl dren) of God. <sup>3</sup> Not that onely: but also we rejoyce in tribulacyons: knowyng that tribulacyon bryngeth pacience, <sup>4</sup> pacience bryngeth experience, experience bryngeth hope. <sup>5</sup> And hope maketh not ashamed: because the love of God is sheed abroad in oure hertes, by the holy ghost whych is geven unto us.

<sup>6</sup> For when we were yet weake, accordyng to the tyme, Christ dyed for us whych were ungodly: <sup>7</sup> Yet scace wyll eny man dye for a ryghtewes man. Paraventure for a good man durst a man dye. <sup>8</sup> But God setteth out his love toward us, seyng that whyll we were yet synners (accordynge to the tyme) Christ dyed for us. <sup>9</sup> Moch more then now (we that are justified by hys blood) shall be saved from wrath thorow hym.

God; <sup>21</sup> and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. <sup>22</sup> And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. <sup>23</sup> Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; <sup>24</sup> but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; <sup>25</sup> who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

to God. <sup>21</sup> Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to do it. <sup>22</sup> And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. <sup>23</sup> Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousness, <sup>24</sup> But also for us, to whome it shalbe imputed (for righteousness,) which beleve in him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead. <sup>25</sup> Who was delivered (to death) for our sinnes and is risen againe for our justification.

5 Then being justified by faith, we have peace toward God through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>2</sup> By whome also we have accesse through faith unto this grace, where in we stand, and rejoyce under the hope of the glorie of God. <sup>3</sup> Nether (do we so) onely, but also we rejoyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth the patience, <sup>4</sup> And patience experience, and experience hope, <sup>5</sup> And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holie Gost, which is given unto us. <sup>6</sup> For Christ, when we were yet of no strength, at (his) time, dyed for the ungodlie. <sup>7</sup> Doubteles one wil scarce dye for a righteous man: but yet for a good man it may be that one dare dye. <sup>8</sup> But God setteth out his love toward us, seeing that while we were yet sinners, Christ dyed for us. <sup>9</sup> Muche more then, being now justified by his blood, <sup>21</sup> and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was able also to perform. <sup>22</sup> Wherefore also it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. <sup>23</sup> Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; <sup>24</sup> but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, who believe on him that raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, <sup>25</sup> who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

5 Being therefore justified by faith, <sup>a</sup>we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>2</sup> through whom also we have had our access <sup>b</sup>by faith into this grace wherein we stand; and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup> And not only so, but we also rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that tribulation worketh stedfastness; <sup>4</sup> and stedfastness, approvedness; and approvedness, hope: <sup>5</sup> and hope putteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been shed abroad in our hearts through the Holy Spirit which was given unto us. <sup>6</sup> For while we were yet weak, in due season Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>7</sup> For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for the good man some one would even dare to die. <sup>8</sup> But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup> Much more then, being now justified by his blood, shall we be saved from

5 Therefore beeing justified by faith, wee are at peace with God, throw our Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> By whome also wee have had an entrance by faith, unto this grace wherein we stand, and rejoyce in hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup> Not that onely: but also wee rejoyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation worketh patience: <sup>4</sup> Patience proove: proove hope: <sup>5</sup> And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shedde abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is given unto us. <sup>6</sup> For when wee were yet weake, according to the time, Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>7</sup> Now scarce will any man die for the righteous: yet peradventure for the good, some man durst die. <sup>8</sup> But God setteth out his love toward us, seeing that while wee were yet sinners, Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup> Much more then now, wee that are justified by his blood, shall be saved faith as he gave glory to God, <sup>21</sup> fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. <sup>22</sup> That is why his faith was "reckoned to him as righteousness." <sup>23</sup> But the words, "it was reckoned to him," were written not for his sake alone, <sup>24</sup> but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him that raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, <sup>25</sup> who was put to death for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

5 Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>2</sup> Through him we have obtained access<sup>g</sup> to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. <sup>3</sup> More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, <sup>4</sup> and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, <sup>5</sup> and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.

<sup>6</sup> While we were yet helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>7</sup> Why, one will hardly die for a righteous man—though perhaps for a good man one will dare even to die. <sup>8</sup> But God shows his love for us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup> Since, therefore, we are now justified by his blood, much more shall

<sup>12</sup> Therefore as sin came into the world through one man and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because all men sinned—<sup>13</sup> sin indeed was in the world before the law was given, but sin is not counted where there is no law. <sup>14</sup> Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who was a type of the one who was to come.

<sup>15</sup> But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man's trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of that one man Jesus Christ abounded for many. <sup>16</sup> And the free gift is not like the effect of that one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. <sup>17</sup> If, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ.

and death. <sup>3</sup> For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup> in order that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. <sup>5</sup> For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup> To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. <sup>7</sup> For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law, indeed it cannot; <sup>8</sup> and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup> But you are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God really dwells in you. Any one who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. <sup>10</sup> But if Christ is in you, although your bodies are dead because of sin, your spirits are alive because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup> If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit which dwells in you.

<sup>12</sup> So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—<sup>13</sup> for if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live. <sup>14</sup> For all who are led

<sup>18</sup> I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. <sup>19</sup> For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God; <sup>20</sup> for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of him who subjected it in hope; <sup>21</sup> because the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the glorious liberty of the children of God. <sup>22</sup> We know that the whole creation has been groaning in travail together until now; <sup>23</sup> and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. <sup>24</sup> For in this hope we were saved. <sup>28</sup> We know that in everything God works for good<sup>k</sup> with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose. <sup>29</sup> For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the first-born among many brethren. <sup>30</sup> And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

<sup>31</sup> What then shall we say to this? If God is for us, who is against us? <sup>32</sup> He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, will he not also give us all things with him? <sup>33</sup> Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies; <sup>34</sup> who is to condemn? Is it Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us? <sup>35</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? from the dead, thou shalt be saved: <sup>10</sup> for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. <sup>11</sup> For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be put to shame. <sup>12</sup> For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich unto all that call upon him: <sup>13</sup> for, Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. <sup>14</sup> How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? <sup>15</sup> and how shall they preach, except they be sent? even as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that bring glad tidings of good things!

<sup>16</sup> But they did not all hearken to the glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? <sup>17</sup> So belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ. <sup>18</sup> But I say, Did they not hear? Yea, verily,

Their sound went out into all the earth,

And their words unto the ends of the world.

<sup>19</sup> But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses saith,

I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation,

With a nation void of understanding will I anger you.

<sup>20</sup> And Isaiah is very bold, and saith,

I was found of them that sought me not;

I became manifest unto them that asked not of me.

<sup>21</sup> But as to Israel he saith, All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

thou shalt be saved. <sup>10</sup> For with the heart man beleeveth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. <sup>11</sup> For the Scripture saith, Whosoever beleeveth on him, shall not be confounded. <sup>12</sup> There is no difference betwene the Jew and the Greeke: for the same Lord over all, is rich unto all that call upon him. <sup>13</sup> For whosoever shall call on the Name of the Lord, shall be saved. <sup>14</sup> How then shall they cal on him, on whom they have not beleved? How shall they beleve on him, of whom they have not heard? Howe shall they heare without a preacher? <sup>15</sup> And how shall they preach, except they be sent? As it is written, Howe beautifull are the fete of them which bring good tidings of peace, and bring good tidings of good things? <sup>16</sup> But they have not all obeyed the Gospell: for Esaias saith, Lord, who hath beleved our sayings? <sup>17</sup> So then faith commeth by hearing, and hearing commeth by the word of God. <sup>18</sup> But (I aske) have they not heard? No doubt, their sound went out into all landes, and their words into the endes of the world. <sup>19</sup> But I demand whether Israel did know, or not? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to envie by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. <sup>20</sup> And Esaias is bolde, and sayeth, I have bene found of them that sought me not: I have bene made manifest unto them that asked not after me. <sup>21</sup> But against Israel he saith, All day long have I stretched out my handes unto a people that beleeveth not, but speaketh against me.

be saved. <sup>10</sup> For man believes with his heart and so is justified, and he confesses with his lips and so is saved. <sup>11</sup> The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." <sup>12</sup> For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and bestows his riches upon all who call upon him. <sup>13</sup> For, "every one who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved."

<sup>14</sup> But how are men to call upon him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without a preacher? <sup>15</sup> And how can men preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach good news!" <sup>16</sup> But they have not all heeded the gospel; for Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us?" <sup>17</sup> So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes by the preaching of Christ.

<sup>18</sup> But I ask, have they not heard? Indeed they have; for "Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world."

<sup>19</sup> Again I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses says,

"I will make you jealous of those who are not a nation;
with a foolish nation I will make you angry."

<sup>20</sup> Then Isaiah is so bold as to say,

"I have been found by those who did not seek me;

I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me."

<sup>21</sup> But of Israel he says, "All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people."

<sup>26</sup> For consider your call, brethren; not many of you were wise according to worldly standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth; <sup>27</sup> but God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise, God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong, <sup>28</sup> God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, <sup>29</sup> so that no human being might boast in the presence of God. <sup>30</sup> He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, whom God made our wisdom, our righteousness and sanctification and redemption; <sup>31</sup> therefore, as it is written, "Let him who boasts, boast of the Lord."

who are doomed to pass away. <sup>7</sup> But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glorification. <sup>8</sup> None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. <sup>9</sup> But, as it is written,

"What no eye has seen, nor ear heard,

nor the heart of man conceived,

what God has prepared for those who love him,"

<sup>10</sup> God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. <sup>11</sup> For what person knows a man's thoughts except the spirit of the man which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup> Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might understand the gifts bestowed on us by God. <sup>13</sup> And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who possess the Spirit.

<sup>14</sup> The unspiritual man does not receive the gifts of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>15</sup> The spiritual man judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. <sup>16</sup> "For who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" 3 But I, brethren, could not address you as spiritual men, but as men of the flesh, as babes in Christ. <sup>2</sup>I fed you with milk, not solid food; for you were not ready for it; and even yet you are not ready, <sup>3</sup>for you are still of the flesh. For while there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving like ordinary men? <sup>4</sup>For when one says, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," are you not merely men?

<sup>5</sup>What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each. <sup>6</sup>I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. <sup>7</sup>So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. <sup>8</sup>He who plants and he who waters are equal, and each shall receive his wages according to his labor. <sup>9</sup>For we are fellow workers for God; you are God's field, God's building.

<sup>10</sup>According to the commission of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another man is building upon it. Let each man take care how he builds upon it. <sup>11</sup>For no other foundation can any one lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup>Now if any one builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble—<sup>13</sup>each man's work will become manifest; for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. <sup>14</sup>If the work which any man has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward.

The unmarried man is anxious about the affairs of the Lord, how to please the Lord; <sup>33</sup> but the married man is anxious about worldly affairs, how to please his wife, <sup>34</sup> and his interests are divided. And the unmarried woman or girl is anxious about the affairs of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit; but the married woman is anxious about worldly affairs, how to please her husband. <sup>35</sup> I say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> If any one thinks that he is not behaving properly toward his betrothed, if his passions are strong, and it has to be, let him do as he wishes: let them marry—it is no sin. <sup>37</sup> But whoever is firmly established in his heart, being under no necessity but having his desire under control, and has determined this in his heart, to keep her as his betrothed, he will do well. <sup>38</sup> So that he who marries his betrothed does well; and he who refrains from marriage will do better.

<sup>1</sup> Some ancient authorities read wife. And there is a difference also between the wife and the virgin. She that is unmarried is careful &c.

Is it for oxen that God is concerned? <sup>10</sup> Does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was written for our sake, because the plowman should plow in hope and the thresher thresh in hope of a share in the crop. <sup>11</sup> If we have sown spiritual good among you, is it too much if we reap your material benefits? <sup>12</sup> If others share this rightful claim upon you, do not we still more?

Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ. <sup>13</sup> Do you not know that those who are employed in the temple service get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in the sacrificial offerings? <sup>14</sup> In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the gospel.

<sup>15</sup> But I have made no use of any of these rights, nor am I writing this to secure any such provision. For I would rather die than have any one deprive me of my ground for boasting. <sup>16</sup> For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! <sup>17</sup> For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission. <sup>18</sup> What then is my reward? <sup>6</sup> Now these things are warnings for us, not to desire evil as they did. <sup>7</sup> Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to dance." <sup>8</sup> We must not indulge in immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. <sup>9</sup> We must not put the Lord<sup>2</sup> to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents; <sup>10</sup> nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. <sup>11</sup> Now these things happened to them as a warning, but they were written down for our instruction, upon whom the end of the ages has come. <sup>12</sup> Therefore let any one who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. <sup>13</sup> No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. <sup>31</sup> So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>32</sup> Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, <sup>33</sup> just as I try to please all men in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but 11 that of many, that they may be saved. <sup>1</sup> Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

<sup>2</sup> I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I have delivered them to you. <sup>3</sup> But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a woman is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. <sup>4</sup> Any man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head, <sup>5</sup> but any woman who prays or prophesies with her head unveiled dishonors her head—it is the same as if her head were shaven. <sup>6</sup> For if a woman will not veil herself, then she should cut off her hair; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her wear a veil. <sup>7</sup> For a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man. <sup>8</sup> (For man was not made from woman, but woman from man. <sup>9</sup> Neither was man created for woman, but woman for man.) <sup>10</sup> That is why a woman ought to have a veil on her

Do this in remembrance of me." <sup>25</sup> In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." <sup>26</sup> For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

<sup>27</sup> Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup> Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. <sup>29</sup> For any one who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself. <sup>30</sup> That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. <sup>31</sup> But if we judged ourselves truly, we should not be judged. <sup>32</sup> But when we are judged by the Lord, we are chastened so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

<sup>33</sup> So then, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another—<sup>34</sup> if any one is hungry, let him eat at home—lest you come together to be condemned. About the other things I will give directions when I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be uninformed. <sup>2</sup> You know that when you were heathen, you were led astray to dumb idols, how-
